

LOU DIAMOND INTRODUCTION

Let me begin with a few questions:

- Would you like to make connections that matter?
- Could you use ideas that WIN more business in less time?
- Are you ready to stop surviving and start thriving?

If you answered yes, you are in the right place. If you answered no, you are missing out.

Our speaker today is a connector, motivator, entrepreneur, leader, and thriver. For over 25 years he has been a top sales performer, keynote speaker and performance coach.

He is also CEO of THRIVE, a company focused on helping brands become even more amazing through the power of connecting.

When he isn't speaking or working on his top-rated Thrive LOUD podcast, he is watching his kids grow up too fast, obsessing over how bad his sports teams are, listening to country music...and playing some 'not-so-great' golf.

Helping us connect to thrive, please join me in welcoming from New York City, best selling author, podcaster, and former CLUB DJ.... LOU DIAMOND!
